ABOUT THE FILM

The historic overturning of Roe v. Wade in the United States has emboldened the pro-life movement the world over. Life seems to be winning. But could it ever “win” in a country like Canada?

Roe Canada: The True North in a Post-Roe World follows two Canadian women working intently towards a similar triumph in their country.

Josie and Ruth are intrepid young pro-life activists who are actively investigating how the landmark decision in their neighbouring nation could help or hinder efforts to end abortion in Canada, the only democratic country in the world with zero legal protection for the preborn.

Through interviews with key pro-life advocates like former Planned Parenthood clinic director Abby Johnson, The Babylon Bee's Seth Dillon, and speaker Stephanie Gray Connors, as well as legal experts and media figures on both sides of the border, Josie and Ruth attempt to uncover the roadmap to Canada's version of the June 24th Dobbs victory. Their journey begins in January 2023 at the historic March for Life in Washington, D.C. and ends in May of 2023 at the National March for Life in Ottawa.

Woven into the story is a 50+ year history of the pro-life movement in the two countries, a peek into what grassroots leadership looks like today, and perspective on what's at stake.

Could a country like Canada ever experience a day like the Americans did on June 24?
Will we ever have a moment as significant as Roe's demise?

The answer the film proffers is: Yes***

Yes, if each of us take individual responsibility for the abortions happening under our watch.

Yes, if we choose activism over pessimism.

Yes, if our passion grows into perseverance.

Yes, if our own hearts are converted, and others follow.

Yes, if our faith in God overcomes our fear.

And if Canada can change, certainly the rest of the world can too.

TESTIMONIALS

In our time our society is seeking to make it “blasphemy” to be pro-life. We can't let this deter us. The film reminds us that, unlike our adversaries, we journey with people. “We are about women being empowered in their lives.” In addition, the film underlines the fact that we need to talk about these issues well. We need to learn how to talk productively with people who hold opposing views. The film invites us to be introduced to the face of the pro-life movement. This film I believe will be an instrument in helping to find people for whom this work is a calling in their life. From those who are set “on- fire” we can pray for future leaders to come forward.

– Jeffrey John Mackness

This film was beautiful evidence that individuals who may be afraid and vulnerable can do extremely courageous things with the grace of God. [ . . . ] Their willingness to stand up and speak the truth is beautiful, courageous, and inspiring. This film will inspire many to stand up and have the courage to speak out for the voiceless preborn children in Canada. I pray that it lights a flame in anyone who watches it, and that they may be moved to participate in the Canadian and world wide prolife movement.

I am hopeful that this movie will prick the consciences of those who are silent prolife supporters. I hope it will show them that they can stand up and be counted - not only during the march for life, but every day.

– Dr. Monique Ruberu, Pro-life OB-GYN

TESTIMONIALS

“A heartfelt plea to stand in defiance of the culture of death that grips our nation.”

Blaise Alleyne, Canadian Centre For Bioethical Reform

“Each human encounter in the film was genuine and unscripted. Success for this film is guaranteed. We just have to make sure people see it!”

Margaret Mountain, Veteran Pro-life Activist

“It tells the truth North America is forbidden to know.”

Mike Aquilina, VP, St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology

KEY CREATIVE

The film is directed and produced by Kevin Dunn of DunnMedia & Entertainment, who co-produced the groundbreaking film Fatal Flaws: Legalizing Assisted Death. The award-winning film sent shockwaves around the world about the effect euthanasia laws have on the vulnerable. Dunn's prolific roster of productions have been seen on networks such as Discovery Channel, History Channel, ARTE France and Germany, CBC, Global, CTV, EWTN and Salt + Light TV.

Chris Atkins has over 20 years experience in Television production. His camera has taken him around the world to many places that most people dare not go. From the frozen tundra of Siberia to under water filming beneath a foot of ice and snow. He's followed military troops in Afghanistan, filmed archaeological digs in Israel and captured footage on the front lines against ISIS in Iraq. Chris has recorded moments few others ever will. Documentary credits include the six part documentary series "Israel: A Journey Through Time" (director/producer), "Fatal Flaws" (director of photography), "Hijacking The Holy Land" (writer, director), and he directed and co-wrote the archaeology series "Unearthed" for Vision TV.
